MYTHS vs. FACTS

Myth #1: You move into The Vista when you need care.

Fact #1: The Vista is independent living; you move when you are healthy not when you need care.

Myth #2: The Vista is separate from Christian Health Care Center.

Fact #2: The Vista is owned by Christian Health Care Center (CHCC) and is located on its Wyckoff campus. As a resident of The Vista when you need care it is provided by CHCC.

Myth #3: The Vista is expensive for couples.

Fact #3: Entrance and monthly fees do not double when adding a second person. This is especially beneficial for couples.

Myth #4: The Vista's monthly fees are high compared to other maintenance-free condominium communities.

Fact #4: The Vista is a Life Plan Community or Continuing Care Retirement Community with a monthly fee that includes utilities, dining, housekeeping, transportation, security and a host of other services.

Myth #5: The Vista isn't going to open until 2020.

Fact #5: The Vista is expected to open earlier than 2020. The monthly fees are locked in through 2020.

Myth #6: Since it is not yet built, I have time to make a decision regarding The Vista.

Fact #6: Now is the time to make a fully refundable reservation and lock in pre-construction pricing on the entrance fee as well as secure your selection of apartment floorplan, building floor and underground parking location.
